Berry Quincy

Berry Quincy are an up and coming band from Leuven in Belgium. They started playing together in 2012 and have since built up a strong live reputation. Their style inherits elements from roots, rock, pop, soul and blues with a polyphonous twist. This year they have recorded their second album, Tuesday, at the notorious La Frette studio in Paris. Their eclectic sound reminds us of bands such as Black Crowes, The Doors and Ween but with a pop-like feel to it. The variety in their songs and the energy they produce on stage makes it hard to ignore them at festivals. Overall it is a band you have to hear and want to see.
